

Read Across America (Feb. 27-March 3)

Let's celebrate "Seuss"-style...

Animal Monday (2/27): Wear your favorite "animal" shirt or print!

Travel Tuesday (2/28): Wear a shirt from "the places you've gone!"

Wacky Socks Wednesday (3/1): Wear your "WacKiEsT socks!"

Cat in the Hat Thursday (3/2): Wear your favorite "hat!"

Favorite Team Friday (3/3): Wear your favorite "sports team" attire!

"All Sorts of Sports" was an unfinished, unpublished manuscript by Dr. Seuss from the late 1960's that was auctioned in 2010.

Our Read Across America celebration will kick off two more reading challenges this month!

Now through March 15th, read 10 books & receive 2 free tickets to the Wilmington Blue Rocks!

March 16th through April 16th read 5 books & receive 1 free ticket to Philadelphia Soul football!

Bookmarks will be sent home soon, see additional information on the back side ➡

The Guidelines for the Wilmington Blue Rocks

- Students complete the bookmark by reading 10 books, have an adult sign it, return it to school and receive 2 tickets to the Wilmington Blue Rocks.

ONLY The Wilmington Blue Rocks bookmark must be returned to school by March 15th!

The Guidelines for the Philadelphia Soul Reading Challenge

- Students complete the Soul Bookmark by reading 5 books.
- A parent, guardian, or teacher must initial next to each book read.
- Students will receive 1 ticket to the Soul's Home Opener on April 29th or the Soul Game on May 13th.
- In addition, at the game the student will receive a Soul Certificate of Completion, a photo opportunity with the Championship Trophy, as well as a Soul gift!
- Family & Friends can purchase additional tickets for only $20 of which $3 will be donated back to the school and $2 will be donated to the Frederick L. Hipp Foundation as part of the NJEA.
- Visit www.PhiladelphiaSoul.com/Reading to redeem your tickets or mail your bookmark to by 4/16:

Philadelphia Soul
Attention: Reading Program
4 Echelon Plaza
201 Laurel Road, 7th Floor
Voorhees, NJ 08043